RE: Atlanta Sister Cities Commission Re-appointment

Dear President Borders and Members of the Council:

It is a pleasure for me to re-appoint Cedric Suzman to serve as a member of the Atlanta Sister Cities Commission for the City of Atlanta. This re-appointment is for a term of three (3) years.

I am confident that Mr. Suzman will continue to serve the Atlanta Sister Cities Commission with integrity and dedication.

Sincerely,

Shirley Franklin

CEDRIC L. SUZMAN

Dr. Cedric L. Suzman is Vice President and Director of Programming of The Southern Center for International Studies. He has been associated with the Center since its inception in 1977 and was elected to the Board of Trustees in January, 1988. He was an Associate Professor in the College of Management, Georgia Institute of Technology from 1974-1977. Dr. Suzman received a B.Sc. (Engineering) degree from the University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa, and his M.B.A. and D.B.A. degrees from the Harvard Business School.

Dr. Suzman has edited and co-authored a number of publications on foreign investment in the Southeast United States, on export management and on strategic planning. He has lectured on international business, marketing and strategic planning topics for executive management courses, including the Emory University Executive and Evening MBA programs, the University of Pittsburgh Management Program for Executives and the University of Michigan International Marketing Management seminar.

Cedric Suzman has lived in Atlanta since 1974 and has participated in numerous community activities. He is on the Board of Trustees of the Atlanta Chapter of the American Jewish Committee, has served as Vice President and Chairman of the Chapter's International Relations Commission and is also a member of the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta Community Relations Executive Committee and on the Board of Directors of the King Baudoin Foundation United States. Dr. Suzman is a member of the Advisory Board of the Georgia Tech Center for Business Education and Research (GT CIBER), the Advisory Board of the European Union Center of the University System of Georgia and the International Affairs Advisory Board at Kennesaw State University.

Dr. Suzman is married and has three married children. His wife, Wendy, is a psychotherapist in private practice.
